

Hey Awesome PT!

Below is your Sample Physical Therapist Resume

Be smart; don't use this template as a word-for word resume.

Remember: Your resume may get you in the door, but your interview will make or break your chances of landing the job you want.

Also, it's nice to have a great looking resume, but if you're a horrible negotiator, your resume won't compensate for the 10% salary increase you are leaving on the table. That could be a $7,000+ mistake!

You obviously see the value in having a FREE resume template/guide like this one. Let me encourage you to consider my other resource:

Physical Therapist Job Interview Guide:
How to Ace Your PT Interview and Negotiate the Best Offer

You're investing in yourself by putting the time into crafting a great resume. Consider investing in YOU by using interview and negotiation strategies developed by an MBA turned PT and a PT clinic manager who decided it was time to give Physical Therapists the upper hand in a job interview.

You can learn more about the PT Job Interview Guide here:

<https://www.ptprogress.com/jobinterviewguide/>

I hope you find the PT resume template to be helpful!

- The Team at PTProgress.com

JONATHAN DOE, DPT

JohnDoe@Gmail.com • 417-766-8408 • jonathandoe.com

---

Doctor of Physical Therapy
Washington University - St. Louis, MO

Bachelor of Science in Exercise Science
Missouri State University - Springfield, MO

---

Missouri Rehabilitation Services – St. Louis, MO

Physical Therapist

July 2016 – Present

- Perform outpatient orthopedic Physical Therapy services for all demographics; emphasis in pediatric sports injuries, shoulder rehab, and functional movement screens.
- Developed a marketing strategy to target local physicians through new promotional material, monthly touch points, and content creation for in house and community publications.
- Directed the activity of the marketing team and support staff for developing the PT Running Clinic.

Clinical and Professional Experience

The Rehab Institute of St. Louis – St. Louis, MO

September – December 2015

- Independently provided inpatient rehabilitation services to over 45 neurological patients.
- Responsible for all documentation of a full caseload including relevant outcome measures.
- Communicated weekly with physicians to provide comprehensive multidisciplinary care.

Physical Therapy Specialists – San Diego, CA

July-September 2015

- Managed a full caseload for an outpatient clinic: 2 patients per hour.
- Developed appropriate plans of care for patients ranging from 11-93 years of age.
- Conducted an in-service for PTAs and techs regarding PT evaluations and medical screening.

University Physical Therapy Clinic – St. Louis, MO

January - February 2015

- Provided outpatient and inpatient services for patients with orthopedic and neurological diagnoses.
  - Performed home health PT and inpatient rehab services at an extended care facility.
-

Non-Clinical Work Experience

St. Louis CrossFit, Coach & Trainer

October 2013 – Present

Washington University – Research Assistant

August 2012 – June 2015

Research Focus: Hip labral tears in young athletes

---

Certifications

CSCS Certified Strengths and Conditioning Specialist - NSCA

Health Fitness Specialist – ACSM

CPR/AED and First Aid - AHA